"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

DEAR PARISHIONERS, Praised be Jesus Christ! For my column this week, here are a few announcements:

KICKOFF RALLY for 40 Days for Life Campaign– SUNDAY, SEPT. 22, 2024 – 2PM – 2314 AUBURN AVENUE, CINCINNATI, OH

Be with us for the kickoff of our most important fall 40 Days for Life campaign. We are happy to announce that our Guest Speaker will be Michelle Teska, Candidate for Representative of Ohio House District 55. She will speak of the importance of acting on your principles even in difficult circumstances. Her inspiring story will encourage you to step out in faith and commit to peaceful, public prayer witness in front of our local Planned Parenthood throughout the fall 40 Days for Life Campaign.

Join us and find out how you can bring the love of Christ to the sidewalk and play a part in closing this Planned Parenthood. Since the passage of last year's Issue 1, enshrining abortion in Ohio's Constitution, Ohio, has become an abortion destination. Twenty-five percent of the cars entering PP are from out of state. We must intensify our prayer and sacrifices and seek God's face and turn from our evil ways. Then He will hear from heaven and heal our land. (II Chronicles 7:14).

“You are quite wrong to think of sorrows that the future may bring; it is, as it were, intermeddling with Divine Providence. We who run in the way of Love must never torment ourselves about anything. If I did not suffer minute by minute, it would be impossible for me to be patient; but I see only the present moment, I forget the past and I take good care not to anticipate the future. If we grow disheartened, if sometimes we despair, it is because we have been dwelling on the past or the future. – St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Novena for the Holy Rosary:
Sept 28-Oct 6

QUEEN OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY, in these times of such brazen impiety, manifest thy power with the signs of thine ancient victories, and from thy throne, whence thou dost dispense pardon and graces, mercifully regard the Church of thy Son, His Vicar on earth, and every order of clergy and laity, who are sore oppressed in the mighty conflict. Do thou, who art the powerful vanquisher of all heresies, hasten the hour of mercy, even though the hour of God’s justice is every day provoked by the countless sins of men. For us who are the least of men, kneeling before thee in supplication, do thou obtain the special favor we ask (mention intentions here), the grace we need to live righteously upon earth and to reign among the just in Heaven, the while in company with all faithful Christians throughout the world, we salute thee and acclaim thee as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary. Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us.

GIVE ME THE GRACE GOOD LORD...

by St. Thomas More
(when imprisoned in the Tower of London)

Give me the grace, Good Lord:
 To set the world at naught.
 To set the mind firmly on Thee and not to hang upon the words of men’s mouths.
 To be content to be solitary.
 Not to long for worldly pleasures.
 Little by little utterly to cast off the world and rid my mind of all its business.
 Not to long to hear of earthly things, but that the hearing of worldly fancies may be displeasing to me.
 Gladly to be thinking of God, piteously to call for His help.
 To lean into the comfort of God.
 Busily to labor to love Him.
 To know my own vileness and wretchedness.
 To humble myself under the mighty hand of God.
 To bewail my sins and, for the purging of them, patiently to suffer adversity.
 Gladly to bear my purgatory here.
 To be joyful in tribulations.
 To walk the narrow way that leads to life.
 To have the last thing in remembrance.
 To have ever before my eyes my death that is ever at hand.
 To make death no stranger to me.
 To foresee and consider the everlasting fire of Hell.
 To pray for pardon before the judge comes.
 To have continually in mind the passion that Christ suffered for me.
 For His benefits unceasingly to give Him thanks.
 To buy the time again that I have lost.
 To abstain from vain conversations.
 To shun foolish mirth and gladness.
 To cut off unnecessary recreations.
 Of worldly substance, friends, liberty, life and all, to set the loss at naught, for the winning of Christ.
 To think my worst enemies my best friends, for the brethren of Joseph could never have done him so much good with their love and favor as they did him with their malice and hatred.
 These minds are more to be desired of every man than all the treasures of all the princes and kings, Christian and heathen, were it gathered and laid together all in one heap. Amen

- † Classes are held by Fr. Cushing on Monday evenings at 6:30pm for anyone interested in the Catholic Church.
- † Please vote ‘Yes’ on Amendment 2. It does not establish any educational choice program. Amendment 2 opens the door for Kentucky’s governor & General Assembly to include in their discussions on state educational funding the possibility of directing funds to non-public schools. KY is one of the states that do not have any version of school choice. Amdt. 2 will allow discussions on the topic to commence.
- † The League of St Martin will be meeting the 2nd Saturday of the month to make reparation to The Holy Face at 1:00 pm. Contact jesse.levi.evans@gmail.com for more details.

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, or form-fitting clothing of any sort. Please wear dresses and skirts that fall below the knee when sitting even with leggings (around mid-calf). With due regard to time and circumstance, all are encouraged to wear decorous attire befitting sacred and divine worship.
