"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

DEAR PARISHIONERS, Praised be Jesus Christ! There was an article on the website Rorate Caeli the other day about an interesting pattern that has seemingly developed over the Traditional Latin Mass being approved or denied in dioceses. They note that "in the Archdiocese of Baltimore and Diocese of Richmond, no diocesan clergy at diocesan parishes" can offer the Traditional Latin Mass licitly. In those dioceses, however, they have the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, with personal parishes. Now, here is the interesting part that would be beneficial for us. In the dioceses of San Antonio and Arlington, there is no Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, or any other TLM personal parishes. Those dioceses "have been granted two-year indult renewals, this week, for their existing diocesan parish TLMs offered by diocesan priests". Rorate Caeli notes a possible pattern. If true, we would be safe here since we are a personal parish and the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, or any other group or personal parish, exists in the Diocese of Covington for the Traditional Latin Mass. Let's pray that this is true! I can imagine the anxiety and worry that has come about with the supposed "third document" on the TLM being restricted. Let's continue to storm heaven that the Mass of the Ages, remains for all those who want to worship our beloved Lord as the Saints of old. And friends, there are many! It was quite encouraging to see the attendance at the TLM for the Eucharistic Congress this past week. The Church was so full that they had to turn away people. There was an overflow area about a mile away, and it was packed as well! Keep the Faith! May God bless you. Fr. Matt

Mary Magdalene, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, through love of the truth, washed away in her tears the defilement of her sins, and the words of the Truth are fulfilled which He spake of Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much. She who had remained chilly in sin, became fiery through love. When even His disciples went away again unto their own home, Mary still stood without at the sepulchre of Christ, weeping. She sought Him Whom her soul loved, but she found Him not. She searched for Him with tears; she yearned with strong desire for Him Who, she believed, had been taken away. "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom do you seek?" She is asked why she is sorrowing so that her desire might be strengthened; for when she mentions whom she is seeking, her love is kindled all the more ardently. And thus it befell her, that being the only one who had remained to seek Him, she was the only one that saw Him. For perseverance is essential to any good deed, as the voice of truth tells us: Whoever perseveres unto the end will be saved...

— from the sermons of Pope St. Gregory the Great.

MAJESTIC QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND MISTRESS OF THE ANGELS, thou didst receive from God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan; wherefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of Heaven, that, under thy command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence, and hurl them back into the pit of Hell. "Who is like unto God?" O good and tender Mother, thou shalt ever be our hope and the object of our love. O Mother of God, send forth the holy Angels to defend us and drive far from us the cruel foe. Holy Angels and Archangels, defend us and keep us. Amen.

COME ADORE AND MAKE REPARATION TO THY KING,

Exposed on the Altar every Friday from 1:00 to 7:30 pm.

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us"
—St. Alphonsus Liguori.

"Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament has His hands full of graces, and He is ready to bestow them on anyone who asks for them"—St. Peter Alcantara.

"Good friends find pleasure in one another's company. Let us know pleasure in the company of our best Friend, a Friend who can do everything for us, a Friend who loves us beyond measure. Here in the Blessed Sacrament we can talk to Him straight from the heart"—St. Alphonsus Liguori.

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, or form-fitting clothing of any sort. Please wear dresses and skirts that fall below the knee when sitting even with leggings (around mid-calf). With due regard to time and circumstance, all are encouraged to wear decorous attire befitting sacred and divine worship.
