"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY promised to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted." She left for all Christians Fifteen Promises to those who recite the Holy Rosary.

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. The Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just, he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life.

22nd Sunday after Pentecost

October 20th, 2024

7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brothers and sisters of my only Son Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

“OUR SOULS may lose their peace and even disturb other people’s if we are always criticizing trivial actions—which often are not real defects at all, but we construe them wrongly through our ignorance of their motives”
—St. Teresa of Jesus.

“I AM ALWAYS repeating to you that from insignificant self-indulgences we come to important sins. What is more grievous than the sin of condemning one’s neighbor? What else is so hateful and alienating to God? And yet man comes to this great evil through something seemingly unimportant—from allowing himself a small censure of his neighbor. For when this is allowed the mind begins to leave its own sins without attention and notice the sins of its neighbor. And this leads to gossip, reproaches, speaking evil and, finally, pernicious condemnation. Yet nothing angers God more, nothing so despoils a man (of grace) and leads so surely to perdition as fault-finding, speaking evil and condemning one’s neighbor”—Saint Abba Dorotheus.

“IF WE WISH to preserve unshaken faith in our superiors, we must write their good deeds indelibly in our hearts and preserve them in our memories so that, when the demons scatter distrust of them among us, we can repel them by what we have retained in our minds... When the thought strikes you to judge and condemn your superior, leap away as though from fornication. Give no trust, no place, entry, or starting point to that snake. Say to this viper: ‘Listen to me, deceiver, I have no right to pass judgment on my superior but he has the authority to be my judge. I do not judge him, he judges me’”—St. John Climacus.

“When we want to obtain anything of the good God, let us, after Holy Communion, offer Him His well-beloved Son, with all the merits of His Death and Passion; He will be able to refuse us nothing.”

“The Saints did not become Saints without many a sacrifice and many a struggle.”— St. Jean Marie Vianney

MAJESTIC QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND MISTRESS OF THE ANGELS, thou didst receive from God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan; wherefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of Heaven, that, under thy command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence, and hurl them back into the pit of Hell. “Who is like unto God?” O good and tender Mother, thou shalt ever be our hope and the object of our love. O Mother of God, send forth the holy Angels to defend us and drive far from us the cruel foe. Holy Angels and Archangels, defend us and keep us. Amen.
