JE SUIS L'IMMACULÉE CONCEPTION

"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

DEAR PARISHIONERS,
Praised be Jesus Christ! Today is the 3rd Sunday after Pentecost. The term 'after Pentecost' implies that we are in the time of Pentecost. In other words, the Holy Ghost was not sent to us for just the day of Pentecost, but for the ordinary everyday life of every faithful Catholic. Each day we are sent out with the power of the Holy Ghost to transform the world for His glory and honor. That can be a daunting task. The Epistle says that the devil is a "roaring lion", he "goeth about seeking whom he may devour". However, we are consoled, for St. Paul continues and says, "But the God of all grace, Who hath called us unto His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will Himself perfect you, and confirm you, and establish you". In other words, trust in the Lord, always! As we go through this time, remember the words of our dear Lord in Sacred Scripture, "Be not afraid". Interestingly, it is said that that phrase, and other phrases like it, are uttered 365 times in Sacred Scripture. That's one for every day of the year! So, be not afraid. Live your beautiful Faith with complete trust like the Apostles who went out after receiving the Holy Ghost and were no longer afraid. We have a God who loves us so much to search for us when we are lost, and doesn't rest until He finds us, as we hear in St. Luke's Gospel today. He so wants us to be with Him. May our constant desire be to be with Him for ever and ever. "To Him be glory and empire for ever and ever, Amen!"

— God bless you, Fr. Matt

p.s. This Wednesday, June 12th, we are having our Baccalaureate Mass here at Our Lady of Lourdes at 5:30 pm. Come support and celebrate with our graduates!

JESUS, I cast myself and all my concerns into Your Sacred Heart, overflowing with all sweetness. I commit to You with perfect confidence all my spiritual and temporal interests. I beg of You in the hours of my weakness and excitement, when I forget or neglect to call upon You for help, to be still my Protector and Guide. Give me light to see Your Will, strength to do it, and the grace not to offend You by the least deliberate fault. AMEN

*All the crosses I have borne, all the sorrows I have met,
All the pain I've left behind me, all that lies before me yet;
All the graces & blessings, that have flowed from Heaven to me,
All I prize, O HEART OF JESUS, is my offering now to Thee.*

*Every act of true contrition I have made in years gone by,
Every deed of true amendment I shall do until I die;
Every ray of hope & promise that confession brings to me,
Every fervent prayer I utter is my offering now to Thee.*

*Take them all, O FRIEND UNFAILING! they are poor return I know
For the grace that Thou has sent me, that has shielded me from woe;
Take my heart, my soul, my body, frail & erring though they be;
All I prize, O HEART OF JESUS, is my offering now to Thee.*

MAJESTIC QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND MISTRESS OF THE ANGELS, thou didst receive from God the power and commission to crush the head of Satan; wherefore we humbly beseech thee, send forth the legions of Heaven, that, under thy command, they may seek out all evil spirits, engage them everywhere in battle, curb their insolence, and hurl them back into the pit of Hell. "Who is like unto God?" O good and tender Mother, thou shalt ever be our hope and the object of our love. O Mother of God, send forth the holy Angels to defend us and drive far from us the cruel foe. Holy Angels and Archangels, defend us and keep us. Amen.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST NOVENA PRAYERS

Day 1 (starting June 15)

O GLORIOUS ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, greatest prophet among those born of woman, although thou wast sanctified in thy mother's womb and didst lead a most innocent life, nevertheless it was thy will to retire into the wilderness, there to devote thyself to the practice of austerity and penance; obtain for us of thy Lord the grace to be wholly detached, at least in our hearts, from earthly goods, and to practice Christian mortification with interior recollection and with the spirit of holy prayer. Amen.

(end each day by mentioning petitions here)

V. O glorious St. John the Baptist, through the love thou dost bear to Jesus Christ, & for the glory of His Name,
R. Hear our prayers and obtain our petitions.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be...

"Be thou faithful unto death: and I will give thee the crown of life." (Apoc 2:10)

OUR HOLINESS is essentially God's work. Yes, in the work of our sanctification, God has the predominant, and we, the minimum share, though this be an indispensable minimum. It is a law of the spiritual life that the farther we advance towards the peaks, the more we depend upon God. In the plain, amid the jostling of commonplace souls, our need of God, though real, is less apparent. Yet, when the climb grows difficult, when precipices menace us, when the foot slips, and the head turns giddy, it is then that we depend utterly on the Divine Guide... The saints were profoundly convinced of this truth: in this lies the secret of their imperturbable trust. Let us seek to imitate them! Were we to have a lively sense of our helplessness, though difficulties seem to have accumulated in an extraordinary fashion, bringing us to the conviction that we shall never attain holiness — we can then be assured, if only in UTTER TRUST we have recourse to God, that the hour of miraculous intervention is at hand. In Him, let our hope be placed; let this hope be a firm hope, the more so, as happily we are no longer able to place hope in ourselves!

"I thank God everyday that He has allowed me to live in these times. Good and evil are arranged against each other in a gigantic struggle. We can be proud to take part in this battle. Now, no one has a right to mediocrity"— P. Pius XI.

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, or form-fitting clothing of any sort. Please wear dresses and skirts that fall below the knee when sitting even with leggings (around mid-calf). With due regard to time and circumstance, all are encouraged to wear decorous attire befitting sacred and divine worship.
