"I do not promise you happiness in this life, only in the next"

Dear Parishioners, Praised be Jesus Christ!

ODAY, OUR LORD is presented in the Temple. When the Temple was rebuilt, it was never as grand and glorious as King Solomon's Temple. But today, the New Temple far exceeds even that of Solomon's Temple. For the true King of the World has entered in. Before, the Temple had just shadows of His Glory. Today, God's Glory truly enters! God Incarnate has entered His Temple! Of course, the New Temple is the Catholic Church. Every Catholic Church has the Glory of God, truly Present. How can anyone even think of going anywhere else than the Catholic Church? Pray for conversions always, that people leave their false religions & enter into the True Church founded by God Himself with His True Presence, the Catholic Church! As a reminder on this day, we will have the procession at the 11:30 am Mass. Also, your candles will be blessed. Shine those candles for all to see! The Light of Christ dispels the darkness of sin, death, and despair! Tomorrow, Monday, is the Feast of St. Blaise. I will bless your throats. I will also bless them next weekend after all the Masses, since this week we have Candlemas. God is so good to give us so many blessings! Let's resolve to always keep His Light burning brightly in our hearts, loving Him with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength, and taking His Light to the whole world! God bless you all, Fr. Matt

VAS INSIGNE DEVOTIONIS

“And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His Mother: Behold this Child is set for the fall and for the resurrection of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be contradicted; and thine own soul a sword shall pierce, that out of many hearts thoughts may be revealed”

THE HOLY OLD MAN SIMEON knew well that the Messiah was born only of Mary, and that to her alone would one day belong the offering up of Jesus upon Calvary. Therefore, though his benediction equally included St. Joseph, yet it was to the Mother of God alone that he addressed the prophetic utterance. These words were, for the heart of the Immaculate Virgin, a cause of unspeakable grief, though at the same time of exceeding joy. In fact, Mary perceived that if Jesus was to be a contradicted sign, it was by reason of the envy of men, which would drive them to such a pitch of malice, as to become guilty of deicide. She understood that this persecution must of necessity include herself also, the true Mother of the Redeemer. But if the Saviour is to be for many an occasion of perdition, He will also prove, for those who are ready and willing to accept His teaching, a source of grace, so that in His name and by His power they will become victors over sin and death. This thought sufficed to console Mary and to animate her for the fulfillment of her mission.

☉ Mary, who hast given us in thy Purification, so bright an example of true and sincere devotion, and whose sweet heart was at once pierced with sorrow and filled with heavenly joy at the prophecy of Simeon, grant that I may imitate thee, and obey the commandments of Jesus, in such wise, that I may have part in the Redemption which He has won for us. AMEN.

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, or form-fitting clothing of any sort. Please wear dresses and skirts that fall below the knee when sitting even with leggings (around mid-calf). With due regard to time and circumstance, all are encouraged to wear decorous attire befitting sacred and divine worship.
